Eliot, We've received all of your emails over the past few weeks. Ipassed on your comments re: the second mortgage and whether or not it might it may be invalid if there has been no action after five years. He says it is not quite that simple under Florida civil law. Simply put, Eliot, figure outwhat you can do with the money that has purportedly been freed up for Josh because he now is of age and make us an offer. We don't enjoy this any more than you do.Your parents I'm sure would be ashamed of you all because of the collective greed. Your dad told me twice that neither Pam nor Ted was to get one more dime because "they've already made millions off of Shirley and me." Walt and Pat

Walt I also sent you a message a few weeks back Telling you my sons attorneys are working on trying to get the money from the registry from the insurance policy to also use if necessary as plan c To pay to pay you back. We are still trying to get that money it should be a few weeks. Bill had thought you said that I had not contacted you and were upset perhaps So please confirm that you got this and my other messages or they could be in junk or interfered with. ET
