Re: iviewit, Inc.

Dear Richard:

Under separate cover I have forwarded you a revised Confidentiality Agreement.

As you know we have undertaken representation of iviewit, Inc. ("iviewit") and are helping them coordinate their corporate and intellectual property matters. In that regard, we have reviewed their technology and procured patent counsel for them. We believe the iviewit technology is far superior to anything presently available with which we are familiar. Iviewit has filed a provisional patent application on a method for providing enhanced digital images on telecommunications networks. We are advised by patent counsel that the process appears novel and may be protected by the patent laws. While in all matters of this sort, it is far to early to make any final pronouncements, we do believe that there is an extremely good prospect that iviewit will protect their process which is novel and superior to any other format which we have seen.

Very truly yours,

Christopher C. Wheeler

Rosman is attorney for Hassan Miah who knows Rubenstein and asks for his opinion on the technologies. Wheeler sends this letter Rosman on behalf of Proskauer. Note no outside patent counsel is ever referred to and Wheeler uses the "we" referring to Proskauer and their patent department.

For a firm that now claims to know nothing about the Inventions and to not have done any patent work, this a heck of a strong opinion on the strength of the Inventions to an accredited investor.
