Hi Greg:

Wanted to thank you on behalf of Iviewit for the time you have taken the past few weeks to discuss our strategic Business Plan and our technological plan moving forward.

We were especially pleased today when you agreed to lend your name and bio for our website, in an advisory capacity. We anxiously await your bio at the end of this week. If you could, please provide a digital photo for the website.

Look forward to our next call 11AM Pacific Time on Monday January 7th. Of course, iviewit is hoping your career decision to me made in the near future will be favorable to iviewit also.

Thanks again Greg, and Happy New Year to you and your family.
