Q. Do you understand that?
A. Yes.

Q. When did you first become involved with the Iviewit companies?
A. I'll give an approximate date. I would say about four years ago. Could be a little longer. I'm not -- You know, I'm not certain. Could be five years. Somewhere around four, five years ago.

Q. Do you recall the year being 1998?
A. That would make it four years ago. That sounds right.

Q. Could you describe the circumstances and how you got involved with the Iviewit companies?
A. Yes. I knew Sy Bernstein who was a neighbor of mine. Sy approached me and he said his son has developed some process for the Internet that could possibly be patented. And he asked me whether I could help them - introduce him to some attorneys and could possibly get involved myself from an accounting and a business point of view.

Q. Is Mr. Bernstein still a neighbor of yours?
A. Yes, he is.

Q. Are you social friends with him?
A. Yes. Not on a regular basis, but we are.
change your answer?

A. Brian Utley became the president once he was engaged.

Q. Okay.

A. Originally, it was Eliot.

Q. What was Proskauer hired to do?

MR. SELZ: Objection. Form of the question.

MR. PRUSASKI: I'll - I'll reask it.

Q. (By Mr. Prusaski) What was Iviewit's intent in hiring Proskauer?

A. Prepare the legal work and introduce them to possible investors and perhaps clients of theirs who could use the technology that Eliot developed that Iviewit owned at that time.

Q. Do you remember the attorneys from Proskauer who did work for Iviewit?

A. Yes. It was Chris Wheeler was the head. And I'm trying to remember. There was a --

Q. Does Rocky Thompson sound familiar?

A. Rocky Thompson. That's the one. Yes, those were the two.

Q. Do you know if any other law firms were used by Iviewit besides Proskauer Rose?

A. Yes, there was a law firm used in New.
York to - I think to patent all of the technology that Eliot supposedly developed:

Q. Was that Foley & Lardner?
A. Yes.

Q. Did Proskauer do patent work for Iviewit?
A. I'm trying to remember. They did consult an attorney in New York, one of Proskauer's attorneys in New York. I don't recall his name. And I do have to tell you I'm not very good with names.

Q. Okay.
A. Okay.

Q. That's fine. And I appreciate your honesty. We don't want you to guess.
A. No.

Q. If you don't remember, simply say you don't remember.
A. No, that is not my strength.

There was an attorney in New York who - who was consulted. I don't recall him doing any actual work on the patent, but I know he was consulted about the patents.

Q. Is he the "one who referred Foley &
Lardner?"
A. I think so, yes.

Q. When did you stop becoming a board member
