Ken Rubenstein Deposition

- 4 Rose?
- 5 A. I don't know.
- 6 Q. When Proskauer Rose would
- 7 represent a new client, would a conflict check
- 8 be run?
- 9 A. I think that's the normal
- 10 procedure of this and most other law firms.
- 11 Q. When you were contacted or spoke
- 12 to Mr. Wheeler with regard to IViewIt.com, did
- 13 you either request that Mr. Wheeler confirm
- 14 the conflict check had been run or did you
- 15 conduct one yourself?
- 16 A. I did not conduct one myself
- 17 because the client came in through Mr. Wheeler
- 18 and he -- in the normal procedure, it would be
- 19 up to him to do the conflict check.
- 20 Q. Okay, so you relied on the fact
- 21 that Mr. Wheeler had done one?
- 22 A. I relied on the fact that it would
- 23 be the normal procedure in this law firm for
- 24 him to have done it.
- Q. But you can't tell me whether or

- Rubenstein
- 2 not today, as you sit here, whether or not one
- 3 was done.

1

- 4 A. I would say it would be the normal
- 5 procedure in this law firm for it to be done.
- 6 Q. But do you have any personal

56

7	Ken Rubenstein Deposition knowledge which would indicate to you directly
8	that a conflict check had been run with regard
9	to IViewIt?
10	A. Well, the fact is, in this law
11	firm they would not assign a client billing
12	number to the client without a conflict check
13	being done, and I understand the client
14	billing number was assigned, so that means a
15	conflict check was done
16	Q. And
17	A or would normally have been
18	done.
19	Q. Normally, but what I am asking you
20	very specifically is, sir, you do not know for
21	a fact whether or not a conflict check was
22	run?
23	A. Not at this point in time, I do
24	not know.
25	Q. And if there was a conflict found,

2 what would be the normal procedure?

3 A. It would go to the -- there is a

4 committee that -- in this law firm, that deals

5 with those issues.

- 6 Q. Does that committees ever obtain
- 7 waivers of conflicts from clients?
- 8 A. They might.
