Re: *Bernstein, et al. v. Appellate Division, First Department
Departmental Disciplinary Committee, et al.*, Index No. 07 Civ.
11196 (SAS)

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I am writing with regard to your recent transmission of your Motion for Pro Bono counsel by e-mail to Todd C. Norbitz and Anne B. Sekel who are attorneys at Foley & Lardner LLP. As you know, our firm represents defendants Foley & Lardner LLP, and all of its present and former attorneys who are parties in this action (Steven C. Becker, Douglas A. Boehm, William J. Dick, and Michael W. Grebe). It is therefore inappropriate for you to send any communications to, or serve any papers directly on, any attorney at Foley & Lardner LLP. Mr. Norbitz and Ms. Sekel are not counsel for Foley & Lardner LLP or any other party in this matter. In the future, please direct all communications and papers concerning our clients to this law firm, and not to Foley & Lardner LLP or any attorneys at that firm. Please be advised, whether your inappropriate communication with my clients is either mistaken or purposeful, should you persist in doing so we will make the necessary application to the Court for all appropriate relief.

Sincerely,

Kent K. Anker
