Along with Bernstein's request for a stay on the case and/or 18 month extension of time to file his Appellant Brief, this document, sourced from confidential sources, includes Bernstein's not so craftily drafted attempt at changing the relief sought to steer unpaid royalties and assignment of future technology contracts to himself, personally (we know what has happened and will happen in those instances).

If filed as such, I will vehemently oppose on behalf of myself and those similarly situated, this purported Motion. Additionally, should Bernstein continue to pursue filings that adversely affect the some or all of the Plaintiffs in the case (himself excluded), I will:

1. Vehemently oppose and quash such Motion; and/or
2. Should a favorable ruling result from any irresponsible Motion, move to reverse such ruling; and
3. Should I, as Lead Appellant-Co-Plaintiff, failed to be served any future Bernstein Motion (this one included), I will move to quash that Motion and have it properly served and filed.

Kevin R. Hall, Esq., Attorney-at-Law, I will deal with separate and apart from the Iviewit matters for his complicity.

Best regards,

P. Stephen Lamont
