Docket No. 08 4873 CV

I. Declaration

Plaintiff-Appellant, Eliot Ivan Bernstein, individually, filed a TIMELY Brief with this Court on February 27 2009. Subsequent to that filing, the press recently reported that defendant Proskauer Firm was alleged as being intimately involved in an unraveling financial scandal paralleling the Bernard Madoff Fifty Billion Dollar Ponzi scheme, one involving Allen Stanford.

New Information - New Evidence

1. Defendant Proskauer involved in the Stanford Financial Group fraud and ongoing SEC and FBI investigations. Criminal Complaints filed by FBI (i) H-09-140M (ii) 309 MJ 56 and SEC Civil Complaints (i) 3:09-cv-00298-N (ii) 3:09-cv-00298-L and (iii) 1:09-mc-00002-JAD.

It was recently learned that the Stanford Financial Group was under investigation by the SEC and FBI. New and revealing information has surfaced in those actions that defendant Proskauer may have been misleading Federal investigators in the Stanford Financial Group fraud and that Proskauer's panic actions in the matter sent a "RED FLAG" to SEC and FBI officials that foul play was occurring, leading the SEC to obtain an immediate injunction to seize the assets of Stanford Financial Group and related companies. In a meeting with the SEC whereby it appeared that the financial scheme was being exposed by an employee of Stanford, the Proskauer attorney left the meeting and immediately sent a letter to the SEC retracting and redacting his and the Proskauer law firm's former statements to the SEC. In a final meeting with Stanford executives being questioned, Sbojlo is reported as stating "THE PARTY IS OVER."

From the deposition statements of the arrested Stanford executive, Chief Investment Officer Laura Pendergest-Holt, combined with news reports naming Thomas V. Sjoblom from Proskauer as Attorney A, it is revealed that Attorney A in the complaints is in fact Sjoblom of Proskauer Rose. From the Houston Chronicle on Sunday, March 01, 2009 "They included outside Counsel Thomas Sjoblom of Washington, D.C., referred to as "Attorney A," who has since withdrawn from representing Stanford". Inferred from the initial documentation and news reports in those cases is that Sjoblom conspired and prepared with Stanford executives to perpetrate fraudulent statements and records to the SEC investigators and so aided in the totality of the fraud and cover-up. The FBI has arrested Holt who was charged with obstructing US Government investigations for her involvement with Sjoblom in preparing false and misleading information given to investigators. It would appear that Proskauer and Sjoblom may soon to be charged with similar charges or worse for their involvement in misleading investigators and coaching Holt to lie to authorities.

It is also alleged from press reports that Stanford has been under investigation for many years for involvement with DRUG CARTELS and money laundering schemes on behalf of such cartels. This puts defendant Proskauer squarely in the center of not only the financial scheme but organized crime. Further, Portfolio.com reports that "Authorities tell ABC News that as part of the investigation, which has been ongoing since last year, Mexican authorities detained one of Stanford's private planes. According to officials, checks found inside the plane were believed to be connected to the Gulf cartel, reputed to be Mexico's most violent gang." From the Guardian.co.uk. online "The FBI is probing possible money laundering linked to Mexico's infamous narco-trafficking Gulf Cartel in its investigation of Texan billionaire Sir Allen Stanford, US law enforcement sources have told the Observer.”

An FBI source close to the investigation would not give exact details but confirmed the agency was looking at links to international drug gangs as part of the huge investigation into Stanford's banking activities. Reports in the US have said Mexican authorities have detained one of Stanford's private planes as part of an investigation into possible links to the Gulf Cartel. It has been alleged cheques found inside the plane were linked to the cartel, which is one of the most violent criminal organizations in the world.

New Information - New Evidence

2. Defendant Proskauer client relations with Bernard Madoff Financial scandal.

The Proskauer firm and related clients are also squarely in the center of the massive financial fraud Ponzi scheme involving Bernard Madoff which also involves Whistleblower allegations going back multiple years before government action occurred. Proskauer also has declared in the Bernard Madoff case, as Proskauer attorney Gregg Mashberg who represents Proskauer in this case and himself Pro Se is quoted as saying “this is a financial 9/11 for our clients.” On the surface this may seem innocuous but when combined with other information it starts to further tie the schemes together, as stated in the Times Online on February 18, 2009, “Perhaps the most alarming is that Stanford Investment Bank has exposure to losses from the Madoff fraud scheme despite the bank's public assurance to the contrary', said the SEC."

New Information - New Evidence

3. Defendant Proskauer, Defendant Meltzer, Defendant Joao, and Defendant Dreier Baritz relations to the ongoing investigation of arrested and house confined attorney Marc Dreier in the several hundred million dollar scheme he is involved.

As alleged in the Amended Complaint, Proskauer Firm also referred defendant Raymond Joao to the Iviewit companies. When Joao came under suspicion for writing 90+ patents into his own name, he was terminated and subsequently went to work for defendant Dreier & Baritz LLP with the alleged stolen Intellectual Properties. Allegedly this is the very same Marc Dreier of defendant Dreier & Baritz Firm who is now under house arrest for yet another bizarre massive money laundering scheme involving lawyers directly implicated in this case of Eliot Bernstein and Iviewit wherein the lawyers are using their law degrees as tools of crime.

Currently under investigation with billions of dollars disappearing. To permit these same defendants who in this case represent themselves in this ongoing RICO to move this Court AND TO PERMIT the defendants in this case who represent themselves in this ongoing RICO to move this Court on behalf of themselves without addressing the multiple layers of conflict first as required by the laws of this Second Circuit under Dunton and related progeny is absurd, highly unethical and violates this Court's Duty to first make an Inquiry in to the conflicts herein not to mention a simultaneous failure to uphold the New York state ethics and disciplinary laws.

Thus, this new and damning information should the force the Court to join all the ongoing investigations¹ into this case bringing in the long overdue Long Arm of the LAW.

Finally, RICO, Racketeering and Conspiracy suits should not be dismissed on Motion Basis at this early stage, as conspiracies exist by hiding the facts from prosecution often by graft, bribe or other enticements to officials in charge of handling complaints, a common theme in RICO and a common theme which may have led to the lax oversight on many unfolding scandals through infiltration of key regulatory posts. In fact, Law 360 states in a recent article "SEC Enforcement Head Resigns Amid Madoff Probe. New York (February 09, 2009) -- Amid criticism stemming from the Madoff scandal, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission Director of Enforcement Linda Thomsen is stepping down and could be replaced by Deutsche Bank AG General Counsel Robert Khuzami, according to reports. As it relates directly to these matters from the Memphis Daily News it is reported:

Before entering private practice, Sjoblom had worked for the SEC for 20 years. From 1987 to 1999, he was an assistant chief litigation counsel in the SEC's Division of Enforcement – the same division of the agency whose representatives were peppering Pendergest-Holt with questions Feb. 10.

After she was put under oath, Sjoblom immediately got down to business.

Pre-empting the SEC officials, according to a transcript of the day's testimony, he asked: "First of all, has there been a criminal referral in this matter?"

King told him that he and his client had been provided with an SEC Form 1662. Among other things, that form reads, "The commission often makes its files available to other governmental agencies, particularly United States Attorneys and state prosecutors. There is a likelihood that information supplied by you will be made available to such agencies where appropriate.”

At press time, criminal charges had not yet been filed against the three executives who were the subject of SEC civil charges last week.

Sjoblom followed that up with another question about whether the SEC is currently working with the U.S. Attorney’s office in the Northern District of Texas or elsewhere.

“Mr. Sjoblom, I just referred you to SEC Form 1662,” King replied.

Objections

Sjoblom pressed on...

Proskauer, Meltzer and Joao, in light of the new information surrounding their involvement possibly in the scandals therefore should not represent any party in these matters until such time that these issues are wholly resolved by federal investigators and this Court should forced each of them to seek non conflicted third party representation in these matters. It is already highly unethical that two of these three are representing themselves, their self representations are then further conflicted through Pro Se representation of the lead attorneys for Proskauer, Mashberg and Smith and well, the Court should already see how many levels of conflict continue to plague these matters and until it is stopped, the public remains exposed through lax regulators and complacent courts or perhaps complicity by the regulators and courts.

As this Court, the US Second Circuit Court of Appeals noted in United States v. Piervinanzi, 23 F. 3d 670 (1994), " When a trial judge is made aware of an apparent conflict of interest, a duty of inquiry arises to protect the represented defendant's interests. See id. at 272, 101 S.Ct. at 1104; Dunton v. County of Suffolk, 729 F.2d 903, 908-09 (2d Cir.), modified, 748 F.2d 69 (2d Cir.1984)." Thus, this Court must now perform its duty of making inquiry in to the multiple levels of conflict herein or stay such appeal and response briefs by Proskauer and other conflicted defendants until such time as federal investigators have ferreted out all of the conflicts, something the District Court failed to do and thereby committing reversible error.

The Court must now mandate that Proskauer report their involvement in the alleged Stanford crimes to all state, federal and international regulators, authorities and liability carriers and their liability in these matters.

The Court must now mandate that Joao and Meltzer report their involvement in the alleged Dreier crimes to all state, federal and international regulators, authorities and liability and their liability in these matters.

We have contacted and filed Motion in the Stanford affairs with the SEC and FBI, alerting them of the possible relation to this case. See Exhibit (Stanford Iviewit Filing with SEC).

II. CONCLUSION

For all these reasons above and those already complained of in almost every other filing for the last seven years with the courts and regulators that were ignored intentionally, the defendants Proskauer, Meltzer, Joao should be removed immediately from self and / or conflicted representation in these matters and all moving papers filed by these defendants should be voided and new papers filed by affirmed non-conflicted third party representation, screened for possible conflicts. Further, all complaints filed in these
