There is a problem. The U.S. Supreme Court's rules prevent a Petitioner from acting on another's behalf, unless he/she is a member of the Supreme Court Bar; clearly, I am not. As such, from the point of April 26 to 60 days forward (roughly, June 25) Iviewit shareholders have the following options:

1. "Opt-in" as individuals on the Lamont filing (we'll figure out original signatures later); or
2. Take my final Word document and file it on your own behalf (to be provided) - however, the waters are murky for this option as they may not accept it as timely.

Clearly, this is the ONLY opportunity to advance this case to the U.S. Supreme Court, and they have accepted, but not yet docketed, the Lamont Petition as timely. Absent "opting-in" or filing on your own behalf (if accepted as timely, and there is no guarantee), should the Lamont filing get back to District Court, the only feasible damages estimation during discovery would be my 11% shareholdings. At this juncture, my advice is to opt-in and I will await decisions within 2 weeks

Best regards,

P. Stephen Lamont
