PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR COURT TO TAKE JUDICIAL NOTICE OF A FEDERAL COURT
FILING

COMES NOW plaintiff, John B. Thompson (Thompson) and moves this court to take judicial notice of the following:

The American Lawyer is reporting today, May 13, 2010, that the law firm of Greenberg Traurig has been sued for its willful participation in and facilitation of what it knew to be an illegal Ponzi scheme. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is the American Lawyer article. Note that by going on the Internet to the following link one can access the electronic version of this article, embedded in which is a link to the actual Ponzi scheme complaint filed against Greenberg Traurig in federal court:
<http://www.law.com/jsp/article.jsp?id=1202458105019&src=EMC-Email&et=...ial&bu=Law.com&pt=LAWCOM%20Newswire&cn=NW_20100513&kw=Ponzi%20Investor%20Suit%20Targets%20Greenberg%20Traurig%2C%20Quarles%20%26%20Brady>
http://www.law.com/jsp/article.jsp?id=1202458105019&src=EMC-Email&et=...al&bu=Law.com&pt=LAWCOM%20Newswire&cn=NW_20100513&kw=Ponzi%20Investor%20Suit%20Targets%20Greenberg%20Traurig%2C%20Quarles%20%26%20Brady . It can be accessed by the PACER system as well, of course, Case 2:10-cv-01025-JWS.

Plaintiff asks this Honorable Court to take judicial notice of the formal filing of this complaint because the allegations therein corroborate the shocking culture of corruption that permeates the Greenberg Traurig law firm, which was retained by the defendant Florida Bar because of, not in spite of, this firm-wide, top-to-bottom corruption. The Florida Bar wanted a law firm that would be willing to do and say anything to protect its corrupted lawyer disciplinary system which the American Bar Association itself says is fatally flawed and highly susceptible to corruption. What a surprise (not) that Greenberg Traurig has insinuated itself onto the Board of Governors of the Arizona State Bar in order that that lawyer disciplinary entity might look the other way.

No lawyer in the Office of the Florida Attorney General, which should be representing The Florida Bar as the "official arm" of the Florida Supreme Court would be willing to do and say what The Bar's private sector law firm, Greenberg Traurig, has done to protect The Florida Bar from Thompson's rightful claims and the claims of others. The Bar has Greenberg on permanent retainer to handle such claims, when it should be using the Office of the Attorney General of Florida.

If Greenberg Traurig enters a formal appearance on behalf of The Bar in this case, then plaintiff will file a motion to disqualify that firm, as certain lawyers therein will be indispensable fact witnesses herein. That is one reason for this request of judicial notice.

For example, it is not a coincidence that Greenberg Traurig advised The Bar, as asserted in the First Amended Complaint, to waive all insurance coverage as to Thompson. It was so that Greenberg Traurig, without any insurance industry oversight, would be free to violate state and federal laws to harm Thompson. It was The Bar's carrier that shut down The Bar's earlier illegal acts against Thompson. The Bar had in Greenberg Traurig, as the federal lawsuit filed in Arizona District Court indicates, a corrupted law firm, ready, willing, and able to deprive Thompson of his constitutional rights just as it is alleged to have ripped off investors in Arizona.

The four million dollars paid Greenberg Traurig out of Florida Bar members dues over the last several years bought a lot of lawyerly corruption-unavailable to it if the Florida Attorney General had been properly representing The Bar. Thompson can prove that The Bar certainly got its money's worth of corruption from Greenberg.

I hereby certify that a copy of this motion has been provided this 13th day of May, 2010, to all of the parties directly, as plaintiff is waiting to hear whether they will waive formal service of the summons and first amended complaint herein.
