Dear Mr. Bernstein:

Your 78 page fax dated December 3, 2009 labeled as a complaint against Chief Counsel Alan W. Friedberg has been referred to me. Among other things, the document contains copies of letters from you to State Senator John L. Sampson of the New York Senate Judiciary Committee alleging that the DDC has engaged in conflicts of interest, corruption and other wrongful acts. We find no merit in those accusations. In any event, your new "complaint" against Mr. Friedberg provides no basis on which the Committee should pursue action. Indeed, you appear to be arguing that anyone associated with the Committee is precluded from considering the merits of your complaint.

On October 7, 2009 I wrote to you advising that your previous complaints against Mr. Friedberg and other attorneys have been closed. They remain so. You may wish to consider consulting with counsel regarding the matters raised in your submissions.

Very truly yours,

Roy L. Reardon
