RE: 07-9599 Request for Reporter Notes of 10/29/09 Jury Charge

Dear Judge Scheindlin,

I recently requested a copy of the above-referenced Reporter Notes from the SDNY Court Reporters' office. (A copy of my October 11, 2010 dated letter to Mr. Sam Mauro is attached hereto as page two.)

Mr. Muro subsequently advised me via email on November 5, 2010 that his procedures, while allowing for inspection, do not provide "for copying and releasing to parties and/or members of the public." (A copy of Mr. Mauro's November 5, 2010 email is attached hereto as page three.) Mr. Mauro further advises that he is prepared to provide a copy of the notes, but believes it "appropriate to ask Judge Scheindlin for her approval before doing so."

Accordingly, and in direct response to Mr. Mauro's direction, I respectfully request your Honor's approval that I be provided with copies of the 07-9599 Reporter Notes of the October 29, 2009 Jury Charge.

Thank you for your time concerning my request.

Request denied. There is no reason that the standard procedures for inspection of the original court reporter notes is not sufficient. These procedures do not permit copying and releasing notes to the public. There being no basis to override these procedures, I decline to do so.

Very truly yours,

Kevin McKeown
