11/01/2010	123	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin from Monica Connell dated 10/13/2010, re: Counsel writes in response to a "Motion to Re-open Docket" which was sent by fax on October 11, 2010. The motion also seeks the disqualification of the Attorney General from representing the State Defendants in this case. Because this motion is entirely without merit, we ask that the Court accept this letter as opposition to the motion and deny the same. Alternatively, due to pressing briefing schedules in other cases, State defendants ask to have until November 15, 2010 to submit formal opposition. ENDORSEMENT: The State Defendants may file their opposition to plaintiff's motion to re-open by Nov 15, 2010. Plaintiff's reply will then be due by Nov 30, 2010. So Ordered. Set Deadlines as to 117 MOTION to Reopen. (Response/Opposition due by 11/15/2010. Replies due by 11/30/2010) (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 10/29/2010) (lnl) (Entered: 11/01/2010)

03/21/2008	11	ORDER: plaintiffs are again reminded that pursuant to Standing Order M10-468, all communications with the Court, including all motions and letters are to be directed to the Court's Pro Se Office, not to chambers. Violation of the Standing Order may lead to a finding of contempt of court. Plaintiffs have requested reconsideration of the Court's Order dated March 7, 2008. The Court declines to revisit its earlier decision. Plaintiffs have also requested legal advice on several topics. The Court does not give legal advice to parties. Plaintiffs have requested legal advice on several topics. The Court does not give legal advice to parties. Plaintiffs have requested that the Court notify the appropriate authorities of defendants' alleged criminal misconduct. At this early stage of the litigation, such notification would be both inappropriate and premature. Finally, plaintiffs have requested permission to make use of the Court's electronic case filing and case management system. At this time, permission to do so is denied. Any further consideration of the substantive issues raised by plaintiffs, including plaintiffs' requests regarding conflicts of interest, must await the resolution of anticipated motions to dismiss. 03/10/2008	7	ORDER: I have considered plaintiffs' request and have determined that the Attorney General does not face an improper conflict of interest in representing the State Defendants. If, however, the Attorney General concludes that an investigation of defendants is warranted, then independent counsel would be required. Plaintiffs request that the Court find that defendant Raymond A. Joao's counsel, alleged to be John W. Fried is conflicted because Fried will be required to testify and may be added as a defendant. Plaintiffs' request is denied at this time. Plaintiff also request that the Court reconsider its earlier denial of plaintiffs' request for pro bono counsel. Plaintiffs have presented no such decisions or factual matters. The Request is denied. Defendants time to return waivers of personal service is hereby extended until March 21, 2008. Defendants shall move or answer no later than May 30, 2008. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 3/7/2008) (jpo) (Entered: 03/10/2008)
