CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Iviewit, Inc., a Delaware corporation, having a principal place of business at One Boca Place, 2255 Glades Road, Suite 337 West, Boca Raton, Florida 33431 (together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries and affiliates, the "Company"), is willing, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, to disclose certain "Proprietary Information" (defined below) to the undersigned only for the purpose of permitting the undersigned to evaluate potential business opportunities with the Company. The undersigned acknowledges and agrees that any and all Proprietary Information provided by or on behalf of the Company to the undersigned, or to which the undersigned otherwise gains access to, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

If the Proprietary Information disclosed hereunder includes any technical information, invention disclosures, or patent applications of the Company that are listed or summarized in an attachment to this Agreement (the "Patent Information"), and if the undersigned obtains the results of any searches for any patents, publications, or other printed information relevant to the Patent Information during the course of evaluating potential business opportunities with the Company in accordance with the purpose of this agreement, then the undersigned agrees to provide the Company with such search results.

"Proprietary Information" means all materials and information (regardless of the form of such information, including without limitation, in writing, electronic, computerized, or other recorded form, oral or visual) that the undersigned may receive or learn of now or in the future concerning, or related in any way to, the Company, its technology, or its business, including without limitation: (a) the contents of any business plan, projections, or financial or credit information or data relating to the Company; (b) the contents of any manuals or written materials of the Company; (c) the names and records of actual or prospective clients, customers, suppliers, lenders, financing sources, or related persons; (d) the terms of various agreements between the Company and third parties; (e) any data or database, or other information compiled or developed by the Company; (f) the contents of any patent portfolio, patent applications, or technical information relating to the Company; (g) any computer programs and listings, source codes and/or object codes, file structures, trademarks, trade secrets, patents, patent designs, patent applications, copyrights, mask works, forms, procedures, processes, training methods, developments, technical information, marketing activities and procedures and methods of operation, methodologies and processes for digital imaging, streaming video, internet videoconferencing, and related technologies, together with any other information, data, know-how or knowledge of a confidential or proprietary nature; and (h) any information of a type described above derived or obtained from the internet or any website of the Company, including without limitation, the file structure relating to such website or the content of such website.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term "Proprietary Information" does not include information that: (a) is already known to the undersigned or in the undersigned's possession (other than that which was furnished to the undersigned by or on behalf of the Company prior to the date of this Agreement); or (b) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the undersigned; or (c) becomes available to the undersigned on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Company or its representatives, provided that such source is not known, after inquiry, to be bound by a confidentiality agreement with, or other obligation of secrecy to, the Company. The undersigned shall bear the burden of demonstrating the availability of any of the exceptions set forth in the preceding sentence.

The undersigned acknowledges that the Proprietary Information constitutes valuable, special, and unique assets of the Company. The undersigned agrees: (a) to receive in trust, and treat as confidential, the Proprietary Information; (b) not to use any of the Proprietary Information for any purpose, other than the aforesaid purpose, without the prior written consent of an officer of the Company; (c) not to disclose any of the Proprietary Information to anyone (other than to such of the undersigned's employees and advisors who have executed a written confidentiality agreement with the undersigned and who have a need to know such Information for the sole purpose of assisting the undersigned in evaluating such Information; provided that the undersigned shall be liable for any breach of this Agreement by such employees and advisors) without the prior written consent of an officer of the Company; (d) not to reproduce, store, or otherwise copy any Proprietary Information in any form without the prior written consent of an officer of the Company; and (e) not to disassemble, decompile, or reverse engineer any Proprietary Information.

The undersigned further acknowledges that all Proprietary Information is and shall remain the exclusive property of the Company, and that all right, title, and interest in and to the Proprietary Information is and shall remain with the Company. No license or other rights are granted hereunder by the Company. The undersigned shall, upon written request from the Company at any time, or immediately upon expiration of this Agreement, return all documented or tangible Proprietary Information (including all copies, excerpts, and derivatives thereof) to the Company.

Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict the undersigned from undertaking any activities or obligations with third parties in related technology fields so long as the undersigned does not otherwise breach this Agreement.

This Agreement shall become effective on the date signed below, and shall terminate on the later of three (3) years after its effective date or three (3) years after all documented or tangible Proprietary Information is returned to the Company.

The undersigned further agrees that the Company shall be entitled to equitable relief, including an injunction, in the event of any breach of this Agreement, that the granting of such relief will not be opposed, and that such relief shall not be the exclusive remedy for such breach. Furthermore, the undersigned agrees to defend and hold harmless the Company from any loss, cost, expense (including attorney's fees and litigation expenses), claim, liability, or damage arising from or related to a breach of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Florida. In connection with any suit, action, or legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the undersigned hereby consents and submits to the jurisdiction and venue of the courts of the State of Florida in Palm Beach County and/or the District Court of the United States, Southern District of Florida.

The undersigned has executed this Agreement as of the date set forth below.
