We were supposed to have had our car returned to us today. Candice called to pick it up after school with the kids. Master Auto called back stating it had blown up over the weekend and caught three cars on fire. Notified the feds, see attached. The car was at Master after it was vandalized at another auto body shop Family Auto, where it had been prior towed for breakdown. The whole affair started when it broke down in boca and my brother ted was having AAA pick it up. AAA called about 2 weeks ago stating they never picked it up but that it was Vrchota Corporation (954) 421-2420. Does this represent anything other than spontaneous combustion? Sure scary that my wife and kids could have been driving home. The fire dep is investigating for arson according to the dept, we are awaiting report.
