Motion for Extension of Time to File Brief

ELIOT IVAN BERNSTEIN (“Eliot”), Pro Se, hereby submits this Motion for an Extension of Time to File Brief.

1. That Eliot requests this Court grant an additional 30-day extension of time to file the Initial Brief and Index based in part upon medical issues he is finally recovering from after a year of being treated for serious and “life threatening” issues.
2. Further, Eliot claims that Judge John Blakey stated in his denial of the In Forma Pauperis application and request for Pro Bono counsel that a large sum of money was coming to Eliot's children from his court proceeding to secure counsel but as of this date those funds are not available and therefore Eliot is unable to secure counsel.

3. Financially the monies that were alleged paid to the Florida courts by the lower court have now been confirmed to have been put in the Palm Beach Court registry for his children but have not yet been secured by Eliot Bernstein's children's attorneys as of this date.
4. On August 30, 2018 a motion to disburse funds to Joshua Bernstein was filed by his counsel with the 15th Judicial Circuit of Florida, as of yet the Court has not ruled to disburse the funds. The other children will be making similar applications shortly.
5. Eliot again, asks this Court to reconsider Pro Bono counsel and Informa Pauperis status as the monies for his children that was anticipated by Judge John Robert Blakey and this Court to be available for appeal is not available at this time and may take an unknown amount of time to obtain.

WHEREFORE, Eliot respectfully prays that this Honorable Court grant the relief requested.

DATED: September 10, 2018

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Eliot Ivan Bernstein
