P.S. to Counsel: When a case has 25 or more parties represented by the same attorney it is considered a party limit case and only the first 5 parties are entered in the case and then "et al" to cover the remaining appellants. Because this case is a party limit case Mr. Lenoir's name is not listed on the docket or in the caption as he is covered under the "et al". Due to the aforementioned you will not see his substitution listed on the docket or in the caption but the party will be covered under "et al" and by this order.
