The only issues that involve you are:

1. compelling you to accept your share of the cash generated by the sale of furniture and jewelry.

Why do you refuse to accept that money?

If you won't accept it, would you simply agree it could be deposited into the Court registry? Or, it would you like to direct Mr. O'Connell to send the money to someone else. Or, if you would like to repay the Estate for some of the unnecessary legal fees you have caused, you could direct Mr. O'Connell to keep the money for the Estate.

Either way, it is your money and it is the only thing in the world Simon left to you. We would suggest you take it and move onward.

2. an order determining you lack standing to participate, similar to the order entered in the Shirley side.

We think these can be handled easily and efficiently, and would like your agreement to set them now for a date in late November.

While we are not unsympathetic to medical needs in a normal situation, you have regularly delayed and sought to delay this estate, which is more than 7 years old and which we need to close the estate so we can finalize the trust administration.

Please advise asap. If needed, we will ask the Judge to set a prompt hearing.

Rose et al.,

November 19, 2019 will not work for me. The dentist doing the procedure has not gotten back to me at this point as to if the materials have arrived and when the procedure will be done. We will let you know as soon as he arranges, it will take two weeks or so of recovery after that.
