

College? Definitely!
► Open Enrollment Ends February 29.

Start Saving Today!

Enroll Now

FLORIDA
PREPAID
COLLEGE BOARD
► Starting is Believin'

Home → Collections → John Phillips

IN THE NEWS

John Phillips

FIND MORE STORIES ABOUT: Boat Eagles Pickup Truck Addiction Pope John Paul | More

FEATURED ARTICLES

LIFESTYLE

'Papa' John Phillips A Man Of Melodies

By TIM PAGE The Washington Post, March 21, 2001

As you read these words, somebody, somewhere, is listening to the Mamas and the Papas sing California Dreamin' and feeling just fine. John Phillips, who died Sunday at the age of 65, founded the group, wrote the song and coordinated the close, sweet harmonies. It was the first in a series of airy, expertly wrought soft-rock hits, to be followed by Monday, Monday, I Saw Her Again, Dedicated to the One I Love and perhaps half a dozen others. Both lament and celebration -- a Northeasterner's longing evocation of greener grass on the other side of the continent -- California Dreamin' was the No. 1 pop song in America almost exactly 35 years ago, topping the charts in the frozen February of

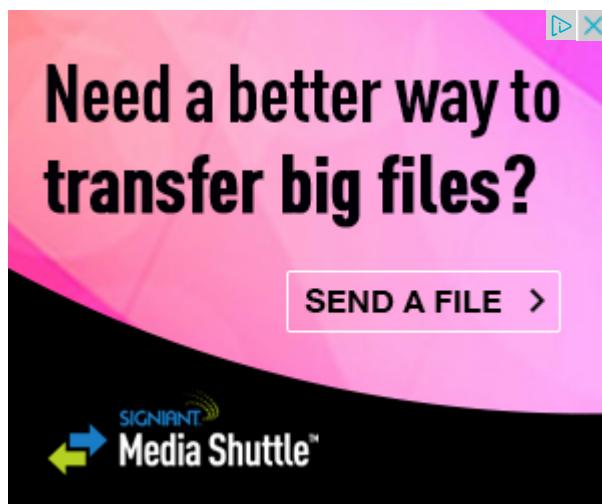

ARTICLES BY DATE

NEWS

Brownie's Wasn't Fancy But It Was Friendly, Fun

-- Linda Trischitta and Staff Researcher Barbara Hijek contributed to this report, November 24, 2009

The oldest existing bar in Broward County is gone. But the new owners of shuttered landmark Brownie's Tavern, 1411 S. Andrews Ave., promise live music will play again when their tropical-themed bar and patio opens in 2010, with a new name. In its heyday, the 74-year-old watering hole opened by Brownie Robertson showcased performers like Ella Fitzgerald and Louis Armstrong. The Trianon Ballroom where they played is now an empty lot. The recession, life changes and a good offer all led to lawyer John Phillips' sale of the bar he owned since 1999.

Need a better way to transfer big files?

SEND A FILE >

SIGNIANT
Media Shuttle™

LIFESTYLE

Michelle Phillips Reveals What She Left Out Of Book

By Marilyn Beck, Special to the News/Sun-Sentinel, December 21, 1985

'Never in my wildest dreams would I ever consider it.' That is what Michelle Phillips has to say about writing an autobiography. True, the dusty-rose blonde who sang her way to fame with the Mamas and the Papas in the '60s has California Dreamin' due to be published by Warner Books next May. But the tome is about the famed folk-rock group and that's all. It concludes in 1968. We won't be reading any heart-stopping revelations, she says - although she does cover such subjects as the group's drug use. "We came in about the time the psychedelics were introduced ... "I tried to tell a very '60s story with, hopefully, a very '60s backdrop.

Advertisement

CarGurus™

2005 Toyota Sequoia
SR5 - Miami
Great Deal

$6,198

VIEW

LIFESTYLE

'Papa' John Phillips A Man Of Melodies

By TIM PAGE The Washington Post, March 21, 2001

As you read these words, somebody, somewhere, is listening to the Mamas and the Papas sing California Dreamin' and feeling just fine. John Phillips, who died Sunday at the age of 65, founded the group, wrote the song and coordinated the close, sweet harmonies. It was the first in a series of airy, expertly wrought soft-rock hits, to be followed by Monday, Monday, I Saw Her Again, Dedicated to the One I Love and perhaps half a dozen others. Both lament and celebration -- a Northerner's longing evocation of greener grass on the other side of the continent -- California Dreamin' was the No. 1 pop song in America almost exactly 35 years ago, topping the charts in the frozen February of 1966.

NEWS

Brownie's Wasn't Fancy But It Was Friendly, Fun

-- Linda Trischitta and Staff Researcher Barbara Hijek contributed to this report, November 24, 2009

The oldest existing bar in Broward County is gone. But the new owners of shuttered landmark Brownie's Tavern, 1411 S. Andrews Ave., promise live music will play again when their tropical-themed bar and patio opens in 2010, with a new name. In its heyday, the 74-year-old watering hole opened by Brownie Robertson showcased performers like Ella Fitzgerald and Louis Armstrong. The Trianon Ballroom where they played is now an empty lot. The recession, life changes and a good offer all led to lawyer John Phillips' sale of the bar he owned since 1999.

LIFESTYLE

Book Tells On Mamas And The Papas

New York Daily News, November 15, 1985

Michelle Phillips reports her upcoming California Dreamin` memoirs about the Mamas and the Papas is by no means a Mama and Papa Dearest. And that might come as reassuring news to ex-Papas John Phillips and Denny Doherty, who haven't seen or had any part in her Dreamin` opus. The actress/singer says plans to make the book a collaborative effort with her former band mates "didn't work. There are too many inconsistencies when you have different people telling the same story side by side." She does expect her former co-workers to "love it. It's not that I don't tell everything."

NEWS

Headgear Urged For Bicyclists

By CATHERINE HICKEY Staff Writer, April 24, 1996

John Phillips says he can't remember anything about the bicycle accident that almost killed him on Dec. 7. Phillips, a family Circuit Court judge, was riding his bike home from the courthouse in West Palm Beach to his house in Jupiter when a pickup truck hit him from behind. Phillips, 46, smashed through the truck's windshield. When police arrived at the scene, they assumed he was dead and called the homicide unit to investigate the accident. But Phillips wasn't dead. He had survived.

NEWS

Neighbor Torpedoes Boat Theft Thief Tries To Swim Away Towing Craft

<http://articles.sun-sentinel.com/keyword/john-phillips>

NEWS

Headgear Urged For Bicyclists

By CATHERINE HICKEY Staff Writer, April 24, 1996

John Phillips says he can't remember anything about the bicycle accident that almost killed him on Dec. 7. Phillips, a family Circuit Court judge, was riding his bike home from the courthouse in West Palm Beach to his house in Jupiter when a pickup truck hit him from behind. Phillips, 46, smashed through the truck's windshield. When police arrived at the scene, they assumed he was dead and called the homicide unit to investigate the accident. But Phillips wasn't dead. He had survived.

LIFESTYLE

Mackenzie Phillips

By SHERRI WINSTON and Staff Writer, April 16, 1996

From television's "whatever happened to" files, Mackenzie Phillips emerges with a fresh perspective and a fresh start. Oh, surely you remember Mackenzie Phillips? Here's a hint: This is it. This is life, the one you get, so go and have a ball... That line comes from the theme song of One Day At A Time, a CBS sitcom that ran from 1975 to 1984, starring Bonnie Franklin, Valerie Bertinelli, Pat Harrington Jr. and Phillips. In the role of rebellious teen Julie Cooper, the reedy Phillips spiced up the show with her quick wit and unconventional outlook.

NEWS

Neighbor Torpedoes Boat Theft Thief Tries To Swim Away Towing Craft

By T.L. STANLEY, Staff Writer, August 25, 1990

BOYNTON BEACH -- John Phillips calls his 28-foot Mako Mariner a family fishing boat. But a suspected thief wearing a wetsuit, swim fins and life vest tried to turn the craft into a tugboat early Friday. He grabbed a rope from its hull, jumped into the water and started tugging the boat toward the Intracoastal Waterway, police said. "He must have really planned this out," Phillips said of the crime. "To be wearing a wetsuit and everything. It just amazes me." The suspect intended to guide the $50,000 boat out to open waters, where he would jump start it and make a getaway, detectives said.

LIFESTYLE

Michelle Phillips Reveals What She Left Out Of

By T.L. STANLEY, Staff Writer, August 25, 1990

BOYNTON BEACH -- John Phillips calls his 28-foot Mako Mariner a family fishing boat. But a suspected thief wearing a wetsuit, swim fins and life vest tried to turn the craft into a tugboat early Friday. He grabbed a rope from its hull, jumped into the water and started tugging the boat toward the Intracoastal Waterway, police said. "He must have really planned this out," Phillips said of the crime. "To be wearing a wetsuit and everything. It just amazes me." The suspect intended to guide the $50,000 boat out to open waters, where he would jump start it and make a getaway, detectives said.

SPORTS

Pope John Paul Survives Upset Bid Of Trojans

By Bob Hill, Staff Writer, January 19, 1985

With all the narrow escapes Pope John Paul II has collected this season, the Eagles could well be the Indiana Joneses of the Palm Beach County Athletic Conference. While Friday's 79-72 defeat of Lake Worth hardly ranks up there with the one- and two-point victories trailing the Eagles all season, Pope John Paul did manage to turn a certain rout into another three-ring circus affair. "It just kills us sometimes," Eagles coach Mike McManus said. "We tend to play at the level of our competition."

LIFESTYLE

Mackenzie Phillips

By SHERRI WINSTON and Staff Writer, April 16, 1996

From television's "whatever happened to" files, Mackenzie Phillips emerges with a fresh perspective and a fresh start. Oh, surely you remember Mackenzie Phillips? Here's a hint: This is it. This is life, the one you get, so go and have a ball... That line comes from the theme song of One Day At A Time, a CBS sitcom that ran from 1975 to 1984, starring Bonnie Franklin, Valerie Bertinelli, Pat Harrington Jr. and Phillips. In the role of rebellious teen Julie Cooper, the reedy Phillips spiced up the show with her quick wit and unconventional outlook.

NEWS

Paternity Case Tossed Out

Staff reports, June 20, 1991

Book

By Marilyn Beck, Special to the News/Sun-Sentinel, December 21, 1985

'Never in my wildest dreams would I ever consider it.' That is what Michelle Phillips has to say about writing an autobiography. True, the dusty-rose blonde who sang her way to fame with the Mamas and the Papas in the '60s has California Dreamin' due to be published by Warner Books next May. But the tome is about the famed folk-rock group and that's all. It concludes in 1968. We won't be reading any heart-stopping revelations, she says - although she does cover such subjects as the group's drug use. "We came in about the time the psychedelics were introduced ... "I tried to tell a very '60s story with, hopefully, a very '60s backdrop.

LIFESTYLE

Book Tells On Mamas And The Papas

New York Daily News, November 15, 1985

Michelle Phillips reports her upcoming California Dreamin' memoirs about the Mamas and the Papas is by no means a Mama and Papa Dearest. And that might come as reassuring news to ex-Papas John Phillips and Denny Doherty, who haven't seen or had any part in her Dreamin' opus. The actress/singer says plans to make the book a collaborative effort with her former band mates "didn't work. There are too many inconsistencies when you have different people telling the same story side by side." She does expect her former co-workers to "love it. It's not that I don't tell everything."

SPORTS

Pope John Paul Survives Upset Bid Of Trojans

By Bob Hill, Staff Writer, January 19, 1985

With all the narrow escapes Pope John Paul II has collected this season, the Eagles could well be the Indiana Joneses of the Palm Beach County Athletic Conference. While Friday's 79-72 defeat of Lake Worth hardly ranks up there with the one- and two-point victories trailing the Eagles all season, Pope John Paul did manage to turn a certain rout into another three-ring circus affair. "It just kills us sometimes," Eagles coach Mike McManus said. "We tend to play at the level of our competition."

A West Palm Beach man who claims his father is the 1950s singer, Dion, will not get legal proof of his paternity, an appellate court ruled on Wednesday. Dion Ambrogio, 34, an air-conditioner repairman by day and singer by night, exceeded a statute of limitations in filing his paternity claim, a Palm Beach County circuit judge ruled in July 1990, throwing out the case. The 4th District Court of Appeal in West Palm Beach upheld Circuit Judge John Phillips' ruling. Ambrogio had said Dion DiMucci, now of Boca Raton, and his mother had been sweethearts in New Jersey in 1956.

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | Next

Index by Keyword | Index by Date | Privacy Policy | Terms of Service

Please note the green-lined linked article text has been applied commercially without any involvement from our newsroom editors, reporters or any other editorial staff.